

Year 6 Autumn Term

The World Assessment

Lesson	Working towards expectations	Working at expectations	Greater depth	Assessment activity	Assessment
1. Can you identify locational lines on a map of the World?	Identify the Equator, Northern Hemisphere, Southern Hemisphere and North and South Poles.	Identify lines of longitude and latitude, Arctic and Antarctic Circle, hemispheres, Prime Meridian, Tropics.	Identify the position of a range of countries around the world using appropriate subject vocabulary.	Written description BBC Bitesize quiz
2. Do you know where the main countries of the World are?	Identify the location of the UK, and the continents on a world map.	Identify the location of the UK, and the continents on a world map along with the main countries of the world and know their	Locate a wide range of countries around the world and know their capital cities.	Map
3. Do you understand the different time zones around the world?	Know why different countries have different time zones. Locate GMT on the map.	Locate GMT on the map. Identify the time difference between different countries.	Locate GMT on the map. Identify the time difference between different countries. Explain why some countries have more than one time zone.	Labelled map Map activities	